Summit State Bank announces the distribution of bonuses to non-executive employees

Santa Rosa, CA – (December 29, 2017) – Jim Brush, President and Chief Executive Officer of Summit State Bank (NASDAQ: SSBI) has announced that all non-executive employees will receive a $2,000 bonus effective January, 2018.

“Our Board of Directors recognize the beneficial nature that the corporate tax rate decrease will have on our bank and decided that our employees should directly benefit from the legislation,” said Allan Hemphill, Chairman of the Board of Summit State Bank. The bank has 78 employees living in Sonoma County. “This is a great gesture from our Board; our staff is the heart and soul of our business and continues to do an excellent job serving our customers. Our staff and customers are both at the core of our success,” said Jim Brush, President/CEO.
