Summit State Bank Welcomes Chase Miles and Promotes Cally Puckett

Santa Rosa, CA – (October 14, 2026) – Summit State Bank is pleased to announce that Chase Miles has joined the Bank as Assistant Vice President and Portfolio Manager, and Cally Puckett has been promoted from Vice President and Director of Human Resources to Senior Vice President and Director of Human Resources.

Miles brings more than 15 years of banking experience across capital markets, private banking, residential lending, commercial real estate, and commercial business lending. He holds a degree in Economics from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, and brings expertise in complex credit opportunities and lending solutions. “We are excited to welcome Chase to our team,” said Brian Reed, President and CEO of Summit State Bank. “His experience and commitment to our clients will be a valuable addition as we continue to grow and serve our community.”

As Portfolio Manager, Miles will support commercial lending relationships and partner with relationship managers to help customers achieve their business and financing goals. He lives in Petaluma with his wife and three sons and enjoys camping, coaching T-ball, volunteering on the PTA Board, and playing pickleball.

Puckett joined Summit State Bank in November 2025 and has been instrumental in strengthening the Bank’s culture and fostering an engaged, supportive workplace. This promotion recognizes her dedication, compassionate leadership, and positive impact on the Summit team.
